

Use Destiny, the AMS Library Online Catalog at home or at school

To Login as yourself:

Go to the AMS web site.

Click on “AMS Library” on the left side of the page (3rd link down).

Click on “Destiny” on the left side of the page.

Click on “Destiny” in blue.

Click on Amesbury Middle School (in blue).

Click on Login in the upper right hand corner.

Type your entire student ID number to log in (once for user name and once for password) then click on: Login .

Click on the “Catalog” tab. (Logging in using your student ID number allows you to search the online catalog, access your own Destiny Quest account, access WebPath Express to search for web sites, access or add to your own saved Resource Lists, and check your My Info page (list of library materials checked out, items on hold, titles recommended by a friend). When logged in, you may put a hold on a book, renew books, recommend books to members of our school community, or write reviews about library materials.

Use Destiny, the AMS Library Online Catalog at home or at school

To Login as yourself:

Go to the AMS web site.

Click on “AMS Library” on the left side of the page.

Click on “Destiny” on the left side of the page.

Click on “Destiny” in blue.

Click on Amesbury Middle School (in blue).

Click on Login in the upper right hand corner.

Type your entire student ID number to log in (once for user name and once for password) then click on: Login .

Click on the “Catalog” tab. (Logging in using your student ID number allows you to search the online catalog, access your own Destiny Quest account, access WebPath Express to search for web sites, access or add to your own saved Resource Lists, and check your My Info page (list of library materials checked out, items on hold, titles recommended by a friend). When logged in, you may put a hold on a book, renew books, recommend books to members of our school community, or write reviews about library materials.
