

One Minute Speech

The One Minute Speech is a great way to practice public speaking in a short amount of time. The goal of this work is to deliver a speech that is focused, well supported, and written for a specific audience. Your One Minute Speech should include the following information.

1st

Welcome your audience and thank them for attending your presentation.

2nd

Summarize the issue or topic and introduce any relevant information.

3rd

State your position on the topic. What is your argument?

4th

Support your ideas with evidence and supporting details.

- Support should be credible (true and believable) and convincing.
- Use a variety of appeals (logical, ethical, and emotional).

5th

Conclude with a summary of your main points. Restate your point of view on the topic and explain why your ideas are worth considering.
