- Quote

Don't forget to follow me on Twitter @AESMrM. I currently have 51 followers... My goal is 100.

WELCOME TO AES

- Tyler Chase - Afternoon Technician

FOR-YOUR-INFORMATION (FYI)

- If you do NOT want your son/daughter photographed please email aes-notes@amesburyma.org and let us know.
- If you have not signed up for our school routine COVID safety check program, sign up here: <https://www.cic-health.com/consent/ma>

AES EXPLORER

- The AES Student Newspaper is up and running!
- Our Fourth Grade Reporters met for the first time, last Thursday and began to brainstorm and write stories about their classrooms, their school or their community.
- Students gather weekly to collaborate, peer edit and write their original stories, which will be compiled into our school newspaper, the AES Explorer.
- This club is open to all fourth graders, and will hopefully expand to include third grade after the holidays.
- Check out last year's edition:

Amesbury Youth Lacrosse and MBYLL's Director of Girls Lacrosse Jenn Salsich are proud to host a Girl's Learn to Play Lacrosse Clinic

Girls who are interested in lacrosse and are unsure what it is all about are welcome to join an introductory clinic. Coaches will work on fundamentals, so players grasp the concept of the game.

We are trying to grow the game of lacrosse and start a girl's league here. If any girls are interested please come to our girl's lacrosse clinic. If you have a stick please bring it.

Please email aylacrosse@gmail.com to register. Please include your player's name and if they have their own stick. Sticks will be provided if a player does not have one.

Who: Girls ages 9 and under

Cost: Free

When: Saturday, November 6th 10:30-11:30
