

Amesbury Public Schools

Office of the Superintendent of Schools

Amesbury Public Schools community,

Friday afternoon the Amesbury School Committee voted to approve a Modified Hybrid model which delays the transition into hybrid learning for AMS & AHS from the plan that was approved on Friday, October 9th. The following is a summary of each school's plan which takes effect Monday, October 19th:

AES & CES

- No change to Oct. 9th plan
- K-1 students will begin hybrid learning Oct. 19th as planned
- 2-4 grade students begin hybrid learning on Oct. 26th as planned

AMS

- All Amesbury Middle School students will remain in a remote model
- Tier 1 special education students will proceed as planned under Oct. 9 plan

AHS

- All Amesbury High School students will remain in a remote model
- Tier 1 special education students will proceed as planned under Oct. 9 plan

AIHS

- No change to Oct. 9th plan

Families will receive additional information from their respective schools.

Jared Fulgoni
Superintendent