What is Early College?

- An opportunity to take college courses while still in high school.
- Commonly used terms include Dual Enrollment, Contract courses, cohort classes.
- College courses can be taken at AHS or on a college campus
- Tonight's Early College opportunities involve juniors and seniors taking college courses on the Northern Essex Haverhill Campus.

What are the different ways that AHS offers students college credit while still in high school?

- Select courses are offered at Amesbury High School, using our teachers, who have been approved as adjunct college professors.
 - Currently we are able to offer two different English classes and two different history classes using our own teachers.
- Contract Courses offered to seniors by NECC where NECC professors come to Amesbury High School and teach a course to our students.
 - Composition I and Composition II
 - In the past have offered Criminal Justice, Sociology, and Psychology.
- Courses offered on the NECC Haverhill campus by NECC professors. NECC has created a high school block on their campus from 12:30 pm to 1:45 pm

What are career focused pathways?

- College courses that have been mapped out to include courses within the Mass Transfer Block that will move students forward in coursework relative to their area of interest.
- The six different pathways include:
 - STEM
 - Business
 - Liberal Arts
 - Education
 - Criminal Justice
 - Healthcare
- Undecided students can also participate in an exploratory pathway

What are the benefits of this opportunity? Why should I consider this?

- Provides exposure to a career focused pathway to help a student discover if he/she is really interested in that area.
- Earn college credit at a reduced rate while still in high school ($110 per credit - most courses are 3 credits and cost $330)
- Experience learning in a college setting.
- Gain experience with using the support systems in place on a college campus.
- When applying to colleges, any college course is recalculated by the college with the same weight as an AP course.
- Extensive list of colleges accept college credits earned in high school as at least elective credits.
 - This allows students to take courses in their major earlier in their college experience.
 - Merrimack and UNH
- Students have full access to NECC facilities and resources
- NECC rate extends to courses outside of the Pathways program (through summer after senior year)

How much does it cost?

- $110 per credit
- The cost of an Associate Degree (60 credits) during high school years would be $6,600.
- Estimated cost of books - $150 per semester
- Many of our Early College Students have started college as a sophomore in terms of credits.

Logistics, application process, and next steps?

- Courses can be taken during Fall Semester, Spring Semester, and Summer I Session (May - juniors only)
- Students can earn up to 15 credits per year (six credits each in Fall and Spring and three credits in Summer I).
- Courses run from 12:30 - 1:45 Monday through Friday. There will be four days of classes and one day of student support. Individual arrangements will be made for students on the non class day.
- With our new six block schedule, students will have the opportunity to leave after fourth block/lunch to attend courses at NECC - Haverhill.
- Students in these courses will be with other high school students from neighboring schools - Newburyport, Pentucket, Triton, Haverhill
- Students are NOT locked into a pathway or taking courses in all three sessions.
- Students will be in session at NECC during February and April vacations and stay at AHS during March NECC spring break.

Logistics, application process and next steps?

- Informational Meetings
 - Student meeting during FLEX on 3/12
 - Notify Ms. Saurman of potential interest by 3/16
 - Ms. Saurman will meet with all interested students during FLEX on 3/17
 - Set up meetings with individual parents and students to complete AHS paperwork for the Pathway Program
- Apply
 - Fill out Early College application and return to Ms. Saurman by 3/20. Note: Completing the application is non-binding.
- Assess
 - If students have not taken and passed the Accuplacer in Reading and Writing, arrangements will be made for that to happen
 - Students can test individually at the NECC Haverhill campus OR
 - Amesbury will arrange group testing at AHS
- Enroll
 - Registration for AHS courses
 - Will take place in early April
 - Registration for NECC courses
 - Will take place beginning in April
